WHAT IS YOUR BIG THING?

If have been aligned to commune with Obatalia, you will inevitably be asked this question. The subject of your BIG thing seems so vague and elusive and often difficult to answer for those who consider themselves to be neurodivergent and have a tendency to have a number of "projects" in development at any given time.

Obatalia's skillsets, experience, and intuitive compassionate approach, creates a safe space for souls to explore and powerfully answer the question with certainty and confidence.

Your BIG thing is what you love to embody no matter the pay or applause--for no one's validation or attention. The inner spark that is just for you. And guess what? You have naturally been drawn to this since childhood.

Obatalia assists adults and children alike, with leveraging experiences, knowledge, and networks in order to blueprint and materialize a business ecosystem supported by the foundation of authenticity and self-love.

Obatalia enjoys being of service as a musician, speaker, self-love guide, holistic lifestyle influencer, primal movement Mistress, sustainable business founder; as well as, a brand aesthetic and artistic development consultant.

Her ability to inspire through funny and often provocative storytelling that infuses ancient proverbs with modern day real life scenarios. She creates a nourishing cypher of self discovery—yielding results without all the pressure to perform and get it “right.”

Obatalia helps those who are at the crossroads and prepared to pivot, tell a new story by rethinking their subconscious beliefs around having and embodying what they truly desire through the small daily habits that create one’s destiny.

Through employing Primordial Essence, a system of movement akin to shamanic dance, animal sounds and movements, we cultivate a playful environment that fosters breakthroughs and aha moments without even trying.

Primordial Essence helps align innovators, free thinkers, creatives, and business rain makers with growing their revenues and self-confidence rapidly by aligning their stories with their own personal brands.

Obatalia comes from a family of service industry & healthcare providers and is certified in hatha yoga as a RYT-200, Kemetic Reiki facilitator, attuned by Ra Sekhi Kemetic Reiki in 2016.

She writes, licenses, and sings music professionally and is currently developing an on stage live production technique that involves the audience members participation in the form of call and response.

Obatalia shares culture as a griot and community leader through ceremony and sincere authentic relating.

Ella Sky Where do I begin!..... You're a whole combo value meal to me! 💙

- You teach me it's ok to be in my sexuality and sensuality... It's not criminal to wear curve hugging attire, or twerk, or lead with my hips while walking. My expression of my creative life force energy unapologetically on purpose 🌊👊🐻
- You've embraced, supported, and seen the creative genius in me while also loving on my shadows and mistakes without judgement, (even when they have affected you).
- You inspire me to use less plastic and invite ideas about other ways to love on mother Earth 🌿🌿
- You add laughter. You'll love on someone and throw some hotep like shade in the same sentence and it's funny af. You wear pants with the whole in crotch and make known the complete absence of shame 🦋
- You remind me of my subtle gifts and how important they are. 🌻
- You've inspired my physical nudity. It was so freeing the go to the river without clothing and be photographed. I have surgery scars and it was incredibly body affirming.... Please know this nakedness has translated in other areas of my life. 🙏
- I met my Life partner at your house. 🏠

I could actually go on... Thank you for all the ways you have added my Earthly and Ethereal experiences! I love you! 💜
